

2021 Season

Well

January 29—February 14

A wickedly witty wild ride about mothers, daughters, health, wellness, community and racism as grown children realize their parents live in an alternative universe.

A Doll's House, Part 2

March 26—April 18

Nora has returned! The most frequently licensed and produced play of 2019 explores, in uproarious fashion, the emotional chaos that results when Nora is launched back into a household she helped burn to the ground 15 years earlier.

Stage Kiss

May 28—June 13

A kiss is not just a kiss in this whirlwind knockabout farce. When two actors with a history are thrown together as leads in a 1930s romantic comedy, they quickly lose touch with reality.

Native Gardens

July 23—August 15

A questionable fence line puts a prize-worthy garden in jeopardy, launching a boisterous backyard battle, turning neighbors into feuding enemies, and challenging notions of race, privilege and good taste.

I Hate Hamlet

October 1—17

A desperate TV actor agrees to play Hamlet on stage. Just one small problem—he absolutely hates Hamlet. Laughs are nonstop in this witty farce.

It's a Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play

November 26—December 19

This beloved holiday classic, brought to life onstage as a 1940s-style radio broadcast, will warm your heart with the true spirit of Christmas. A wonderful tradition for the whole family.
